

Mapping inequalities in prisoner healthcare worldwide
 8 - 9 November 2018
 Birkbeck (Room MAL B04)
 Malet St, Bloomsbury, London WC1E 7HX

PROGRAMME

Thursday 8 November 2018 Venue: MAL B04
10.30	Registration, coffee
11.00-11.20	Welcome: Catherine Heard (Director, ICPR's World Prison Research Programme)
Session One: Equal rights to mental and physical healthcare: theory, context and reality
11.20-11.40	Andrew Coyle CMG (Emeritus Professor of Prison Studies, University of London; former prison governor) The human rights framework for prisoner healthcare – and the reality
11.40-12.00	Juliet Lyon CBE (Chair, Independent Advisory Panel on Deaths in Custody, England and Wales) Keeping safe: consultation with prisoners on how to protect life and prevent suicide
12.00-12.20	Roy Walmsley (Director, World Prison Brief) The latest world prison population figures and the extent of overcrowding
12.20-12.45	Discussion
LUNCH 12.45 – 13.45
Session Two: Health risks and opportunities throughout the custody journey
13.45-14.05	Jenny Talbot OBE (Director Care not Custody programme, Prison Reform Trust) Care not custody: addressing health and social care needs outside of prison
14.05-14.25	Huw Williams (Assoc. Professor in Clinical Neuropsychology, Co-Director of Centre for Clinical Neuropsychology Research, University of Exeter) Screening for undiagnosed consequences of previous head injury on entry to custody

14.25-14.45	Zoe Carre (Policy researcher, Release, UK) Preventing opioid overdose deaths among people released from custody – lessons learned from England
14.45-15.15	Discussion
TEA 15.15 -15.30
Session Three: Can prisons be ‘healthy social climates’?
15.30-15.50	Jo Peden (Consultant in Public Health, Public Health England) Gender specific standards to improve health and wellbeing for women in prison, adopted 2018
15.50-16.10	Richard Shuker (Head of Clinical Services, HMP Grendon) Creating a positive social climate in a Therapeutic Community Prison: implications for psychological health, wellbeing and penal practice
16.10-16.30	Carl Cattermole (ex-prisoner, journalist, author of: ‘HM Prison Service: a Survival Guide’) In conversation with Catherine Heard
16.30-17.00	Discussion

With thanks to the Wellcome Trust/Birkbeck Institutional Strategic Support Fund

Friday 9 November 2018

Venue : MAL B04

9.45-10.00	Registration, coffee
10.00-10.10	Welcome, Catherine Heard , Director, ICPR's World Prison Research Programme
Session Four: Harm reduction in the prison setting
10.10-10.30	Sunita Stürup-Toft (Health & Justice Public Health Specialist, UK Collaborating Centre for the WHO Health in Prisons Programme, Public Health England) Making harm reduction in prison count – what do the evidence and data tell us?
10.30-10.50	Katie Stone (Research Analyst, Harm Reduction International. Lead researcher on human rights-based infectious disease monitoring in prisons) Recent advances in global harm reduction approaches in prison settings, across a range of diverse countries
10.50-11.10	10 mins discussion, 10 mins quick break
11.10-11.30	Vicki Prais (Policy and Programme Manager Penal Reform International) The role of prison staff in protecting the mental health of people in prison
11.30-11.50	Luca Falqui (Health Project Manager, International Committee of the Red Cross, Regional Delegation, Bangkok) Overcoming limitations to good health presented by imprisonment; strategies for developed and less developed countries
11.50-12.10	Discussion
LUNCH 12.10-13.00
Session Five: Challenges and opportunities in prisoner health: some national case studies
13.00-13.20	Emily Nagisa Keehn (Associate Director, Academic Program, Human Rights Program, Harvard Law School) Tackling overcrowding to reduce infectious diseases and violence – lessons from Pollsmoor Remand Detention Facility, South Africa
13.20-13.40	Verapun Ngamdee (executive director, Ozone Foundation, Thailand, member of International Drug Policy Consortium) Lessons from Ozone Foundation (Thailand)'s work supporting prisoners who use drugs (video presentation)
13.40-14.00	10 mins discussion, 10 mins quick break

14.00-14.20	Anja Dirkzwager (Prison health researcher, Netherlands Institute for the Study of Crime and Law Enforcement) Mental health in Dutch prisons: evidence from The Prison Project NL
14.20-14.40	Luiz Guilherme Mendes de Paiva (Coordinator of Studies and Legislative Projects, Brazilian Institute of Criminal Sciences, associate researcher, Centre for International Drug Policy at the London School of Economics; former Secretary for Drug Policy at the Ministry of Justice, Brazil) Central government's efforts to improve healthcare in Brazil's prisons – implementation challenges at the local level
14.40-15.00	Discussion
15.00-15.15 Tea
Session Six: Older prisoners: the growing challenge of providing effective care
15.15-15.35	Natasha Ginnivan (Centre for Research on Ageing Health and Wellbeing, Australia National University and ARC Centre of Excellence in Population Ageing Research, University of New South Wales; Justice Health Research Program, The Kirby Institute, UNSW Australia) Assessing and providing for the unmet health needs of ageing prisoners
15.35-15.55	Katrina Forsyth (University of Manchester) Dementia care pathways for older prisoners
15.55-16.05	Discussion
16.05: Reflections on the conference and questions for future research: open discussion
16.30: End

With thanks to the Wellcome Trust/Birkbeck Institutional Strategic Support Fund